Phillips Temple Demolition

- Purchased in 2011 for $319,000 intended to provide additional 67 parking spaces
- Board of Commissioners approved demolition bids in Nov. 2014
- However, Indianapolis Regional Planning Center declined to hear case in Dec. 2014 preventing demolition
- Regional planners request revisiting possibility of finding alternative use through third-party

Phillips Temple Demolition

- The property has deteriorated
- Unsafe and not a viable for renovation or reuse
- Engineering reports were completed in 2011and 2013 by an independent engineering firm
- Building has been secured

