Generation: 1

1. William Carter Cole b. 15 Jul 1879, Virginia; d. 15 Jul 1975, St. Louis, , Missouri.

Notes:

William Carter Cole, son of Monroe Sr. and Laura Cole, Born in Kenton, TN, October 21, 1879 died in St Louis, Mo December 28, 1975. He was a lifetime member of the St. Paul Baptist Church in Kenton, and a 33 degree Mason in the County Line Lodge #268. He attended a Shriner Convention in Indianapolis in 1953. His favorite scripture was Psalms 37:25.

Not much is known of W.C. Cole's relatives; in the 1990s while on the parking lot of the Kenton Motel, I saw this old guy with a big blue Ford pickup towing a horse trailer. After excersising his horse in the field , he came over, and identified himself as a cousin of Poppa Will. He was a short wiringe guy in his 80s, I'm sorry I didn't get his name.

Notes:

Shortly after I was married, we spent a few days with Aunt Til, around Christmastime; we we all impressed with her tree that recycled snow. Several years later in the middle of a major kitchen renovation, I recalled her stories of her renovation.

I've been to many funerals in my day, but Aunt Til's had the best music!!

Notes:

I think I was about eleven before I recall Mom talking about her Brother "Bubba". She didn't go into much detail, but I think it was something like appendicitis, something that couldn't be helped in the depression, in the south. I never saw his picture until last year.
