

Psalm 121

*I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night:
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.*

Acknowledgment

The Waller family wishes to express its sincere appreciation for the cards, telegrams, florals, condolences and other expressions of sympathy extended them during their bereavement. They have helped immeasurably in lightening our burden of sadness. We wish each of you to know we shall remain ever grateful for your kindness and thoughtfulness.

The Evening Memory of

Mrs. Helen Cole Waller

A Letter To Helen

Mother and Grandmother

We love you very much and will miss you tremendously. The burden of your illness you hid from the world, expressing it not as a cross to bear but a crown to wear. Your faith in God and love of life will forever live in our hearts. Rest now and be at peace, we'll keep your work alive.
