CHINESE AND A. B. C.'S IN DOUBLE HEADER SUNDAY AT FEDERAL PARK.

The Chinese club of Hawaii will play the A. B. C.'s a double header at Federal Park Sunday. The Orientals were here early in the summer and were barely beaten by the colored stars. After playing many college nines and the leading independent teams of the country the Chinese are on their way back to the Pacific coast, whence they will sail for Hawaii late in the fall. Touring from California to Maine this club established an enviable record by winning more than 100 games out of 140 played. Four pitchers are carried by the team, one of them, Inman, being an American, who is coach of the aggregation. Inman takes his turn on the mound against independent teams. Apou, Bo and Ako are the other hurlers. Shortstop Ayou is manager of the aggregation. The Chinese will have their full strength here Sunday and the double-header is expected to provide some interesting baseball.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE.

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear devoted daughter and sister, Inez Arcom Miller, who passed away two years ago, September 29, 1914. All is dark within our hearts; Lonely are our hearts today; For the one we loved so dearly Has forever passed away. More and more each day we miss her; Friends may think the wound is healed; Little do they know the sorrow Lies within our hearts concealed. Her merry lugh we hear no more; Her loving voice is stilled, And all that's left for memory Is a grave in Plainfield on Maple Hill. Peaceful be thy rest, dear daughter, It is sweet to breathe thy name; In life we loved you, In death we worship you the same. From her loving parents, sister and brother, MR. AND MRS. R. F. MILLER. AGLNES MILLER. ULYSSES MILLER.

CARD OF THANKS. Loving friends, you all know that my early and steady recovery is due to the prayers of the many friends, the tender care of the household and relatives, the diligent and faithful work of the nurse and doctor, and, last but not least, my humble prayers to God, for He surely did answer them. One never knows the quality or the quantity of his friends until he is in need of them. I am sure that I found both. Wishing to thank each and every one for their many beautiful bouquets and inspiring visits, I am, yours very sincerely, HOBART W. BANKS, Indianapolis, Ind.

CARD OF THANKS. We desire to extend our thanks to the many friends for their kindness and sympathy during the sickness and death of our loving husband and father, Timothy E. Branham. We also wish to thank Rev. J. L. Craven and those who assisted him in the service; Bethel choir, for beautiful music; Mrs. O. H. Morgan, Waterford Lodge No. 13, F. & A. M., and all the dear friends who sent floral tributes. God bless each one of you. MRS. T. E. BRANHAM AND SON.

AUTHOR OF FILM ANSWERS CRITICS Motive Was Race Defense, Says Dr. W. S. Smith.

PICTURES AS EDUCATORS.

New Jersey Minister Gives Seven Reasons in Justification of His Interest in Photo Play Known as "The Colored American Winning His Suit: Kind to His Enemies."

The Rev. W. S. Smith, D. D., pastor of the Monumental Baptist church of Jersey City, N. J., is one of the most active ministers in New Jersey in all good movements for the advancement of the race along all lines. He is well and favorably known throughout the state and has been pastor of the above named church for fourteen years. Dr. Smith is the author of the photo play produced by the Douglass Film company, entitled "The Colored American Winning His Suit." The story was written in answer to "The Birth of a Nation."

As the author of the play and for his efforts in its promotion, Dr. Smith has been criticised by some of his fellow ministers, who do not believe that a preacher should write moving picture stories or engage in their promotion as a business. Dr. Smith does not neglect any of his duties as pastor of the Monumental Baptist church for other vocations. He is naturally industrious and uses his spare time in study and thought for the good of the race; hence he bears the criticism of his fellow ministers in a generous, true Christian spirit.

Having replied at length to his critics previously, Dr. Smith again says: "I shall once more endeavor to clarify the visions of saints and sinners on the subject. I have for a good many years noticed that the motion picture was being abused rather than used and have long had a desire to see it used in the way most helpful to the public. About eighteen months ago the picture known as 'The Birth of a Nation' had its first appearance before the public. That picture does most severely criticize the Negro and his friends.

"It has stirred up ill feeling and race riots in a great many cities. Much time and money have been spent to break it, but it still plays on. I conceived the idea that holding mass meetings, making big, loud and long speeches, rioting and throwing bricks and overripe eggs all failed as answers to the picture. My reasons for the interest I have taken in moving pictures follows:

"First.—Because I consider it to be a legitimate business that is closely allied to ministerial and educational work and an agency through which one may 'go about doing good.' I am only discussing 'The Colored American Winning His Suit.'

"Second.—Because through it we can answer 'The Birth of a Nation' and all similar pictures that seek to criticize and degrade the Negro race and its friends.

"Third.—Because it is a medium through which one may speak to millions of people and plead the Negro's cause to the world at large as in no other way.

"Fourth.—Because it is an instrument through which we can portray the better side of Negro life, showing his progress from the depths of poverty and ignorance to the heights he has climbed in fifty years' time along all lines in religion, education, business and wealth.

"Fifth.—Because pictures speak a universal language that is understood and read by all.

"Sixth.—Because it can enter places and get a hearing where doors are closed against ministers and those who wish to plead our cause.

"Seventh.—Because it is a God given agency, the greatest yet known to man; for the transmission of truth and knowledge along all educational lines. Through it one may look back through the ages. It brings all the world to the door of the poor, enabling them to see and know things heretofore hidden from their view.

"These are my reasons for writing the story and directing the making of the picture, and it is very gratifying to learn that wherever played the people have shown high appreciation for it, and it is being called for daily throughout the north, south, east and west."

EQUAL RIGHTS CONGRESS.

Churches Are Requested to Hold Special Services For Coming Meeting. Boston.—The National Equal Rights Congress appeals to all the clergy and churches to observe Sunday, Oct. 1, as Equal Rights Sunday and then to have prayer and exhortation for the success of the National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress, to be held in the John Wesley Zion church, Washington, Oct. 4 and 5, and the annual meeting of the league Oct. 6.

The league requests that a service or part of a service on Sunday, Oct. 1, be used to ask God's blessing in the race's effort for equality of legal and civic rights, the suppression of lynchings and the annulment of segregation ordinances, which are nothing less than breeders of race strife. The various churches are also asked to send their pastor and a lay member as delegates to the congress.
