Former News Girls... Now In Business

MISSES NANCIE ELLISON and ELIZABETH ELLISON, daughters of Mrs. Lois Ellison of 520 W. 25th street both who have accomplished great heights in the beauty culture world recently, were former carriers of The Indianapolis Recorder. Miss Nancie qualified with State Board of Beauty Culture in Nashville, Tenn., last month and is now employed in the Clark Beauty Shop of Clarksville, Tenn. She is also qualified to teach and operate now in both Indiana and Tennessee and will return home on December 27 to visit her mother. Miss Elizabeth, who is manager of the Robinson Beauty Shop of Muncie, enjoyed the privilege of being a delegate to the Youth's Set-up Conference held in Spencer, November 1 and 2nd. She is progressing successfully in her work.

"Hanging of the Green" Opens Yuletide Events; Tea For Brides Given

Yuletide activities at Phyllis Wheatley will open on Sunday, December 14, with the annual "Hanging of the Green" ceremony. Those participating in the traditional Christmas story will be Misses Verna Funches, Doris DuValle, Nanceau Strader, Mary Margaret Stephens, Rosella King, and Doris Thomas. Music for the ceremony will be furnished by the professional chorus, the Sorors of Song and Camille Overby, soloist. The annual story around the fireplace will be told by Mrs. James Anderson of Dunbar Branch Library. The public is invited to attend this festive occasion which will begin at 5:30 pm.

The Home and Family Committee are sponsoring a "Tea for Brides" on Sunday, December 21, from 4:30 to 6:00. All recent new brides and brides of the past year will be welcome to attend.

Going West

Something New.

William Kurtz gave a party and his former girl was invited, but the amazing thing was she was due to meet her new (cute man) as she described him to me and I guess that was that P. S. No names needed for obvious reasons.

Something Borrowed.

From Joyce Venable I quote, "Who were those three Haughtville kate who got out of the poor cab-man's cab and told him to begone! Swallow by the road!" Unquote, "Do you know? I do".

Something Blue.

Edward Heater (knowing he would be rejected) walked proudly to the Draft Board smiling. He took the examination after a thorough search. I hear mind you the Doctors sang "Good-bye dear I'll be back in a year". No more need be said he passed. And if that wouldn't give you the blues tell me what is. Also I can write in ease because if he gets angry about this he'll have a year and six months to cool off. So long kid.

Answer.
Answer me, dear people is it right for merely because a girl is being sweet to one boy she can't go out with another? And I think I can get the answer from 11th street.

Party Still Great.
A lovely party was given at the home of Miss Dorothy Taylor. Herman Bell was expected but could not make it because the orchestra in which he played, had an engagement.

Farewell.
I can't say I have covered every thing but I'm a sick man so I'm told who knows maybe I am but till next week, I say in French or something bulena noches.

SUCH LOVELINESS as Dreams are made of

THERE'S DREAM-COME-TRUE PLEASURE IN THIS dream cream

LOVELINESS that lures at first sight—complexion charm that wins and holds—these are the dreams of every woman. No wonder so many women have decided that nothing less than the perfection of Black and White Vanishing Cream is satisfactory. For here truly, is a dream of beauty care come true, a cream of perfect appeal.

To help hold off that old-looking complexion appearance caused by the year's skin-roughening weather, count on the complexion-protection this splendid cream gives you when it holds your powder like a guard between your face and the ravages of wind, sun and dust.

Each night, for beauty's sake... before you go to bed, first cleanse your face with Black and White Cleansing Cream. Then apply Black and White Cold Cream and leave it on all night. Black and White Beauty Creams are sold in 10¢ sizes at five and ten stores and in large 25¢ sizes by all dealers.
