

SOCIAL WHIRL

Elizabeth Brinkman-Taft

MISCELLANEOUS AFFAIRS FIND their way into the Social Whirl this week, what with plans well underway for those Christmas gatherings, club parties and other forms of entertainment.

Little Miss Harriett Frederica Lynem has been confined to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Lynem, 1855 Boulevard place. She is much improved. . . . Little Myra Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Woods of Lockefield Gardens, won first prize in a popularity contest sponsored by the Lockefield Nursery School Mothers club.

Congratulations are in order to Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Jay M. Smith. They are the proud parents of a baby boy, weighing seven pounds and born December 2 at home. Both mother and son are doing nicely. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Leona Yeager and the baby has been named Jay Michael Jr.

Miss Hallie Kirk, formerly Mrs. Hallie Coates, 310 W. Vermont street, is critically ill at City hospital and has been since Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Battles are doing an excellent job, it is reported, as hosts at the Snack Bar each Sunday morning when they serve doughnuts and coffee to service men. . . . Sunday evening at five-thirty, turkey dinners were served to service men and women by the canteen committee which was comprised of Mrs. Esther Bell James, Mrs. LaVie Radcliffe, Mrs. Evelyn Waters, Mrs. Effie LeMonde, Miss Beatrice Singer and Mrs. Roberta Sorter.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Benedict were hosts to a friendly get-together Sunday evening at their home in the Emilie apartments at which time cards and dancing were featured and a gala evening was spent. Mrs. Billie Alexander, Alec Weatherford and the Levi Weatherfords were guests. . . . A pleasure crammed week-end was mine when my dad, J. Emmett Brizentine of Brazil paid me and the children a visit, at the home of Mom and Pop Carter and did we have a grand reunion!

Mrs. Mabel Banks and daughters in Edgemont avenue had as their house guests, Mrs. Dora Milton and daughter, Miss Dorselle Lockridge of Grand Rapids, Mich. . . . Rev. Roger Flye spent the week-end in St. Louis, Mo.

Federation Club News

By MRS. TERESA SANDERS

Seven years ago, an idea was conceived. At its birth it turned out to be the affiliation of clubs, including pleasure, civic, religious and cultural groups. Their association has been so closely woven together that through proper contact, many barriers have been broken down in this our Indianapolis, making it a city in which all citizens including generations to come, will be proud to boast of its brotherly and sisterly love, regardless of race, creed, or color.

Our president Starling W. James had a dream and the F. A. C. is the development of this dream. Mrs. Nora Williams, the chairman of the Financial Drive, made a splendid report at the last Federation meeting. Members and friends December 15th is the deadline for the pledges and we are counting on you. There are Gold Star Pledges which are $10.00; Silver Star Pledges which are $6.00 and every member of the Federation is expected to pay at least $1.50.

Mrs. Gladys Mae Kennedy, secretary of the committee and one of the forty models in the Second Annual Artists and Models Revue sponsored by the Stylist Committee of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., will be the social highlight of the yuletide season on Monday December 27th, at the Northwestern Community Center at 24th and Northwestern ave., beginning at 8:30 p.m. Models for every occasion will be shown by those passing in revue.

MAP PLANS FOR NEGRO HISTORY WEEK Mrs. Frances N. Stewart a teacher of School 26 assisted by Mrs. Delight Hinton a teacher of School 87 both committeemen of the Federation of Associated Clubs has planned a very unusual arrangement whereby many highlights will be presented in line with the annual celebration of Negro History Week, which is directed by Dr.

Share Homes With Soldiers And Wives

With the arrival of the new unit at nearby posts there is a greater need for rooms. Those citizens of the community who can share their homes are urged to call Miss Pauline Batties, or J. H. Hamlin, director of Service Men's Center. Not all men can receive furloughs for the holiday season and you can help a soldier have a Merry Christmas if you provide a place for his wife to stay while she visits him. Homes are especially needed for officers and their wives.

Carter G. Woodson of Washington, D. C. The celebration will begin Sunday February 13 and close with a Mass meeting on February 20 at a place to be announced later. Each year the Federation of Associated Clubs seeks to focus public attention to the history of the Negro. This year the committee contemplates on making this the largest ever held here. Chas. V. Turner is chairman.
