Church Events . . . . . of the City

Last weekend was perfect for the 65 of us from many churches who went to see "King Of Kings." It was most rewarding to see so many coming to support our "Church Day" at the Lyric Theater.

I am grateful to God for the idea. I praise Him for the success of it. To those who attended, the sponsors the ministers and the church where I am a member, we thank you for your support.

Wonderful people came along with cars to carry us.

By request of you in churches who were not contacted, another "Church Day" is in the planning and you too can share in the reduced prices to see "King Of Kings." The date will be announced next week.

SUPPORT INDIANA PASTORS' CONFERENCE: All ministers are invited to attend the Pastors' Conference Feb. 5, 6 and 7 at DePauw University at Greencastle. Make reservations now with the Indiana Council of Churches, 1622 N. Meridian.

DR. R. T. ANDREWS, vice-president, and other officers would appreciate your support.

A special Bible study course began last Thursday at Martindale Avenue Church of Christ and will continue each Thursday night at 7 p.m. Mrs. LaVerne Brown, Sunday School superintendent, is in charge.

The Superintendent Cabinet meeting of the Central District Church School Convention met Jan. 23 at Shiloh Baptist Church. Clarence Alexander of Bethesda Baptist Church is president of the group. China Jones was host superintendent and Rev. C. V. Jetter host pastor. Mrs. Veanie Dawson is district president.

The Mt. Zion Baptist Church with Rev. R. T. Andrews, pastor, was wonderful host last Friday for our annual missionary institute of the Indianapolis Council of United Church Women.

Despite the rain 450 women from 60 churches attended. Mrs. Floyd Whipple was leadership chairman and Mrs. R. H. Peoples, vice-chairman. Ernest S. Gibson was host president. Mrs. Robert B. Purkiss is Council president.

Congratulations to Mrs. Mattie W. Anderson, president of the District Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary of the AME Zion Church, who was recently appointed to serve on a special committee of the National United Church Women. She is a member of Jones Tabernacle AME Zion Church.

Our sympathy this week to Mrs. Maude Washington ("Aunt Maude") as she is fondly known in the loss of her husband, the late Deacon John Washington, who served South Calvary Baptist Church faithfully for many years.

Dr. James Blair Miller will join the national staff of the United Missionary Society Department of Christian Education for special assignments.

Dr. Miller will be on a sabbatical leave as professor of Christian Education at the Christian Theological Seminary. His work will be research and study in Christian Education and writing.

He will attend the World Institute on Christian Education at Belfast, Ireland, next summer.

Get well greetings to Mrs. Dora Winston, 557 W. 29th.

Evangelist Earnestine Moore of Boston, Mass., was guest speaker Sunday, Jan. 21, at Penick Chapel AME Zion Church.

Her appearance was sponsored by the trustee board with James Patton, chairman.

Young people of the church took over Sunday for the beginning of "Youth Week." A wonderful message was delivered by Miss Patricia Hogue, a member of the church. She is a student at I.U. Extension and received a scholarship from the school.

A tribute this week goes to Mrs. Bessie Yuree, member of Allen Chapel AME Church, who has served as a faithful member for 40 years.

During that time she has sung with the Senior Choir of the church and Missionary Society.

A drive to secure blankets for those who must sleep in the streets has been launched by CROP of the Indiana Council of Churches.

Rev. Gerald Wilson is director. One million blankets are needed for winter time is soon coming overseas. The appeal is being made to the churches all over America by the Church World Service of the National Council of Churches.

Indiana people are asked to send blankets plus a money order for 25 cents to help with the mailing. Send all blankets to the Church World Service at Napanee, if you need information or material please contact CROP, 1622 N. Meridian.

Two Awarded Certificates At School 36

For regular attendance, good deportment and commendable progress in their studies two pupils were awarded certificates at School 36.

The recipients were Miss Gloria Lee Long, and Miss Naomi Jean Long, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Long. The presentations were made by their teachers, Mrs. M. E. Morrison and Mrs. Mattie Rice.

Leonard Glover is principal at School 36. Both girls are members of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, and are nieces of Miss Willa Thomas, Recorder church columnist.

Various Courtesies Are Extended Local Woman at Columbus

During a recent stay in Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Delores L. Fletcher was gifted with a piece of Samsonite luggage and other courtesies extended by the Friendship Charly Club and various groups her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Hairston, is affiliated with.

Among other activities was a five-course dinner at Party House given by the Charity Club.

Youth Week ends Sunday at Third Christian Church, 17th and Broadway, at 3 p.m. Please attend and bring your offering for the World Council of Churches educational fund to help teachers, health and agricultural workers in Africa and kits for refugee kindergartens, mobile craft units, pencils, glue, drawing pads, erasers, white and colored chalk, crayons and modeling clay.

Dr. Lester G. McAllister, professor of modern church history at the Christian Theological Seminary, will speak. A choir of 300 voices under the direction of Kenneth Williams, minister of music at Second Presbyterian Church, will sing. Miss Catherine Carter of the Church Federation is sponsor.

This Saturday at noon Dr. Bauman of Washington, D.C., begins the Bible teachings of the New Testament, an accredited course, live from WFBM-TV, Channel 6. Enroll now by writing the Bible Tele-Course, 1622 N. Meridian, Dept. T.

Mrs. James Cummings, a student enrolled in the course, had this to say: "The course is wonderful—full of information." She is among the thousands enrolled in the course. This is presented weekly by Channel 6 in cooperation with the Church Federation of Greater Indianapolis, Indiana University and DePauw University.

Prepare now to attend the National Baptist Sunday School Congress of the National Baptist Convention of America. It meets in Houston, Tex., in June. A special project of securing 500 ballpoint pens with church organizations' names on them can be started for $25 in order to help church school workers raise money for conventional expense. Interested persons may contact Willa Thomas in care of The Recorder office.

Congratulations to Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, the first Negro woman in this state to be appointed registered representative for the Waddell and Reed Mutual Fund Investment Co.

A member of Second Baptist Church, Anderson, Lawrence Gholston is in the Veterans Hospital here. His parents would appreciate a visit from any of you and get well cards.

Cotton ne tags for children's clothing used in the laundry at LaRue D. Carter Memorial Hospital, 1314 W. 10th, are needed. Please, mission groups, donate bags to help them.

Take bags to the hospital and ask for Mrs. Essie Crenshaw.

The board of directors of the Church Federation of Greater Indianapolis will meet Monday, Feb. 5, at 12:05 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church.

The annual meeting of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches is Feb. 9-15 at St. Louis, Mo.

Early rising, start the day by listening at 6:55 a.m. daily to "Into This Day" on Channel 6 TV-WFBM sponsored by the Church Federation.

The youth of New Bethel Baptist Church for Youth Week Friday of this week in fellowship hall will have their annual youth banquet at 8 p.m. For reservations call the church office.

A committee on children's work has been organized in the New Bethel Baptist Church with Mrs. Herman King as chairman. Members of the committee include Mrs. Mary L. Lyons, Mrs. Edna Rollins, Mrs. Emma Washington and Mrs. Jessie Robinson.

Ex-official members are the pastor, Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, William Christian and Mrs. Perry Hopkins.

For Youth Week at Penick Chapel AME Zion Church, morning worship at 11 a.m. Mrs. Song Ja Parks, a Methodist missionary, will speak Sunday. Mrs. Parks, the former Miss Song Ja Kang, is from Korea and is a student at the Christian Theological Seminary.

Bishop Stephen Gill Spottswood, Bishop of the Fourth Episcopal District of the AME Zion Church, returned Sunday to speak at Jones Tabernacle AME Church for the morning worship.
