

Down HOPKINSVILLE Way

By EDGAR A. IRVIN

The Missionary Baptist Ministers' Council held the 2nd anniversary celebration at the Moore's Mission Baptist Church Sunday night. A most interesting program was held after which the group enjoyed a "get acquainted and recreational period". Mrs. B. F. Green is president, Mrs. Willie Neal, reporter, and Rev. A. T. Hendrick is host pastor.

Rev. W. L. Gaither, pastor of Cleveland Springs and Foston Chapel Baptist Churches, worshipped with the Virginia Street Baptist Church in midweek prayer services on Wednesday night. Rev. Gaither in his timely message to the congregation, gave interesting highlights on the Sunday School lesson. The Dorcas Missionary Society was in charge of the services. Rev. A. R. Lasley is their pastor.

Twenty-two 4-H Christian-Todd Counties winners attended the District 4-H Club Week, held at Kentucky State College, Frankfort. The 4-H'ers won recognition in junior speech contest, clothing, electric, bread making, agronomy, home management and home furnishings. These young people were under the supervision of Mrs. Rachel D. Hopkins, home demonstration agent, and Granville King, Jr., farm agent.

Walton Smith, well known in religious, and civic activities, served as guest speaker for the Campbell Street Church of Christ on Sunday. Mr. Smith, a building contractor, is a member of the City Council, president of the Attucks Parent-Teacher Association, and active in other civic organizations. Brother Robert H. Goodloe is pastor of the Campbell Street Church.

Pvt. Morris M. Sharber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sharber, Crofton, recently completed a 15 week radio teletype operation course at Army Southern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga. A 1959 Attucks High graduate, young Sharber entered the Army in 1963, and completed his basic training at Fort Polk, La.

Rev. I. Washington, pastor of Queen Anne Baptist Church, Trenton, was guest speaker for the Green Hill Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Florine White served as chairman for the interesting program. Rev. C. L. Brown is their pastor.

Mrs. Lucile Coleman of the Princeton Road was hostess to a bridal shower held Saturday night, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Milton Hunt. A tasty luncheon was served after which the honorees opened their many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. Hunt is the former Mrs. Mattie Spurlin.

The Friendly Club held its regular meeting Thursday night at the Belvedere Club with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Morrison as hosts. After the business session, a delightful luncheon was served. Mr. George Harris is president, and Mrs. Beatrice Oggs is reporter.

Miss Margaret Ann Poole of Tacoma, Washington, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hatie N. Poole and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Moss and daughter, Goldie Lee of Gracey, Ky., have returned to the city after visiting her brothers and their families in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Annabelle Pitts, former resident of this city, passed away in Chicago June 22. Graveside services were held at Cave Spring Cemetery June 24 with Rev. B. F. Green officiating. Adams Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. The survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Stella Cheatham, this city and Mrs. Earma Peachtree, Chicago; one brother, Howard Majors, Chicago, and a number of cousins.

Mrs. Eula Bell Green died following a brief illness June 22. The funeral was held June 24 at Virginia Street Baptist Church with Rev. C. G. Gaines officiating. Burial was in Cave Spring Cemetery with Adams Funeral Home in charge. The surviving relatives are her husband, Emanuel Green; two children; her father, Mose Hobson; two sisters; two brothers, and several nieces and nephews.

Walter Calvin Russell died suddenly June 23. The funeral was held June 27 at Freeman Chapel CME Church with his pastor, Rev. W. H. Wiggins, Jr., delivering the eulogy. Burial was in Cave Spring Cemetery with Babbs Funeral Home in charge. Mr. Russell was an active member of his church, a member of the Steward Board, a World 2 veteran, a member of the Local V.R.D. Military services were held at the graveside by service men of Fort Campbell. Those surviving are the widow, Mrs. Vera Spurlin Russell; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Curtis, Detroit, and Mrs. Robbie Brent, Ripley, Tenn.; three nieces; three nephews, and several cousins.

Plainfield

PLAINFIELD — The Home Crafts recent calendar tea was a huge success. Mrs. Elizabeth Dyer was chairman and Margaret Butler, co-chairman. Talented members of the county chorus sang and the women, attired in lovely summer outfits, presented a striking picture.

This month's meeting will be with Mrs. James Gilbert. Mrs. Will Dunlap is president and Mrs. Gladys Carbin is secretary.

Members of the Missionary Society will meet at the annex of Bethel A.M.E. Church Friday. President is Mrs. Maud Horne and Mrs. Eva Bryant is secretary.

SHORTRIDGE GRADUATES: Pictured above are members of the 1964 graduating class of Shortridge High School. They are (left to right, front row) Charlotte A. Adams, Mary Archie, Edwina Armour, Fredrick Armor, William Armor, John Bailey, Eugene Barbour, Karon, Barnett, Phyllis Barnett, Sharon Barnett, William Beacham, Aryella Bell, Tyrus Bingham Jr., and Dianna Bradley. On second row are Joan Brents, Joyce Brown, Brenda Bryant, Barbara Burton, Lynn Cain Jr., Paul Cannon, Margaret Carper, Charles Chapman, Frederick Charleston, Jacqueline Chilton, Hilda Clay, Beverly Collins, James Conn and Shirley Conyer. Pictured on third row are Betty Corbitt, Cassandra Cox, Phyllis Cruse, Brenda Curry, Eric Curtis, Gwendolyn Davis, Harry Dunscomb, Joyce Edwards, Sandra Edwards, Walta Edwards, Ikat Ekanem, Freda Elam, Rosella Eldridge and Marcia Ellis. The fourth row consist of Kathleen Evans, Leslie Farley, Franklin Gaillard, Frances Gilbert, Ronald Glover, Demitrus Grant, Ronald Grayson, Angie Greer, Thomas Gude, Helen Hall, John Hall, Luther Hall III, Rhoda Hanley and Anita Harden. On the fifth row are Bobbie Harden, Katherine Hardin, Minyone Hardy, Beverly Hayes, Charles Hayes Jr., Chester Hicks, Allyson Hill, Phyllis Hill, Peter Hilliard, Donald Holloway, Michael Harner, Jeannie Humphrey, Donna Jo Hyde and Connie Irvin. The sixth row includes Carolyn Jackson, Charlene Jackson, Olga Jefferson, Helen Jordan, Evelyn Joyner, Louis Kelley, James Kennedy, Anna Kirk, Norma Knox, Theda Kyser, Ruth Lacy, Robert Alonzo Lee, Joseph Lewis Jr., and Charles Lucas. On the seventh row are Betty Marshall, Clementine Martin, Dennis Martin, James Martin Jr., Gloria Maxey, Winifred May, Margaret Mayo, Patricia McNulty, Loman McClinton, Ernest Medaris, Audrey Mills, Cheryl Mills, Estella Mills and Zippora Moore. The eighth row includes Marilyn Morris, Mary Murray, Mary Jo Oldham, Roger Oliver, Elynn Osborne, Charles Payne, Edith Pearson, Sandra Phillips, Carole Pierce, Paul Pinnie, Flora Price, Lee I. Rainey, Rowena Reid and Rodney Ridley. Included on the ninth row are Marcia Robinson, Patricia Rogers, Eletha Roney, Chuck Russell, Homer Russell, Patricia Russell, Judith Rutland, Gloria Sanders, Bobby Shoaf, Beverly Simmons, Rachel Simmons, Vicky Smith, Richard Stafford and Nancy Starks. On the 10th row are Woodrow Sullivan, Jacqueline Sweatman, Beverly Talley, Deborah Taylor, Gwendolyn Taylor, Judy Taylor, Lynn Tender, Janis Thompson, Lloyd Thornton, Charles Tinsley, Antoinette Tipton, Maxine Tompkins, Ronald Tucker and Paul Turman. Pictured on the 11th row are Shirley Turner, Teresa Vertner, Shirley Wadlington, Elmor Warren, Reneldo Washington, Arthur Watts Jr., Janet Watts, Evelyn Webb, Nerissa Weir, Rose West, Virgie West, Cecelia White and Ronald Whiteside. On the last row are Sandra Whiteside, Doraine Williams, Gloria Williams, Roberta Williams, Rodney Williams, Sharon Williams, Josephine Woods, William D. Woodson and Emilie Young.

James Carmes
Funeral services for James Carmes, 75, were held July 2 at Patton Funeral Home, with burial in Woodhaven Cemetery. He died June 27 at a local nursing home.

Mr. Carmes, a native of Alabama, had lived here 40 years and was a member of Antioch Baptist Church. Prior to retirement, he was a vegetable peddler.

Survivors include three sons, James Jr., Memphis, Tenn., Willie and Robert Carmes, both of Detroit; a daughter, Mrs. Mary S. Moore, and a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Barnett, both of Indianapolis.

Owen Hancock
Rites for Owen Hancock, 55, 2254 Bellefontaine, who died June 26 at General Hospital, were held June 29 at King & King Chapel, with burial in New Crown Cemetery.

Mr. Hancock, a janitor at Peoples Bank, was born at Columbia, Ky., and had lived here 15 years.

Survivors include two brothers, Joseph and William Edward Hancock, and two sisters, Mrs. Rebecca Davis and Mrs. Marjorie Armour, all of Indianapolis.

Evelyn G. Owens
Burial for Mrs. Evelyn Green Owens, 43, 404 W. North, was July 2 following rites at Jacobs Brothers Westside Chapel. She died June 29 at her home.

A native of Hamilton, O., Mrs. Owens had lived here 28 years and was employed as a domestic worker.

A REMINDER TO BUSINESSMEN! ADVERTISERS!

THE YELLOW PAGES ARE GOING TO PRESS!

Find it fast in the Yellow Pages

Today, more and more people are shopping the convenient Yellow Pages way. It's so fast and easy. Will your name be in the Yellow Pages when they're ready to buy?

There's still time to get your listing into the Yellow Pages Directory. But act fast, the closing date is soon. Call our Business Office today!

All Telephone Users—Now is the time to make any changes in your directory listing—or to order additional listings for other members of your family. Call our Business Office today.

INDIANA BELL

Brings Out Rich, Full-Length Hair Beauty

controls dandruff and scalp problems, too

- Promotes hair luster
- Prevents breaking ends
- Builds hair body
- Fights dandruff infection
- Relieves itching
- Leaves hair fragrant

CALL "SAYLES" For PLUMBING

NEW WORK HOME REPAIRING AND REMODELING PLUMBING EASY BUDGET PLAN

HOT WATER HEATERS - NO MONEY DOWN

ELECTRIC SEWER AND DRAIN CLEANING - GAS PIPING

SAYLES PLUMBING HEATING & DRAINING WA. 4-2511 3324 NORTHWESTERN