sembly of the Church Women United, National Council of Churches. Miss Willa Thomas, Recorder church columnist, was among women attending.

Rev. A. Hughes honored for his 28th year

REV. A. MANSFIELD HUGHES

The members of the St. Luke Baptist Church, 1503 E. 19th street will honor their pastor, Rev. A. Mansfield Hughes, for 28 years of service to the church, friends and the community.

Church members noted that his accomplishments have been many in his unselfish service and that his greatest aim has been to win souls for Christ and thereby build Christ's Kingdom.

The following ministers, their congregations and singers will participate in services:

Monday, August 14, 7:45 p. m., Rev. E. Johnson, Galilee Baptist Church, Tuesday, August 15, 7:45 p. m., Rev. H. T. Toliver, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Wednesday, August 16, 7:45 p. m., Rev. William R. Hughley, Westwood Baptist Church, Thursday, August 17, 7:45 p. m., Rev. E. H. Adams, Antioch Baptist Church, Friday, August 18, 7:45 p. m., Rev. Stephen Wells, Corinthian Baptist Church, Sunday, August 20, 3:30 p. m., Rev. G. M. Mimms, Bethesda Baptist Church.

On Monday, August 21 at 7:45 p. m. a musical program will feature the Indiana Wonders, the St. Luke Chorus and the McCaskey and Gibson Singers.

The public is invited. Sister Mittie Thomas is General Chairman; Sister Kathleen Miller, co-chairman and Brother Joe Thompson is Finance Chairman.

REV. JAMES C. BUGGS, pastor of Buggs Temple Church of God In Christ announced this week the acquisition of the church building formerly occupied by Gorham Methodist Church at 11th and Missouri streets. Opening services at the recently purchased church will be held Sunday, August 13 and will feature a gigantic musical program at 7 p. m. presenting such outstanding singing groups as The Wandering Travelers, The Rising Stars, Traveling Innerlights, Soul Larks, The Goldenaires, The Blakey Specials with Brother Eugene Blakey at the organ and the Gospel Heavyweights. There will also be other groups. In addition Evangelist Abram Burns of Milwaukee, Wis., will begin a great revival and healing campaign. Services will continue each night at 7:30 pm. through Aug. 25. There will be prayer for the sick in all services. The public is invited to bring the sick and afflicted. No admission charge. Freewill offering requested.

Church Events

By WILLA THOMAS

"I will bless the Lord at all times. His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord. The humble shall hear thereof and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exhalt His name together" (Psalms 34:1-3).

THOMAS

I am very grateful to all the churches and persons and members of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, who responded to the appeal for clothing for the needy in Mississippi.

Lots of clothing came in during the last two weeks including a donation from Jones Tabernacle AMEZ Church. I would like to thank Elder Morris E. Golder, minister, and a worker at Grace Apostolic Church, Mrs. Johnette Corlett, for the $200 worth of food contributed. I thank them also for shipping the food.

I received a call Monday from Mrs. Anna Taylor of Bethany Baptist Church Friends, she took her vacation week and collected food and clothing for Mississippi. She is supported by the missionary society with Mrs. Cassie Kelly as president.

James Fowler is project chairman.

The National Baptist Convention Chorus which will sing for the National Baptist Convention of America Sept. 5-10 here will have its first rehearsal Monday at 7:30 p. m. at Mt. Paran Baptist Church, 34th and Boulevard.

All members of every choir and church including male choruses, are invited to come and sing. Mrs. Virgil Dewitty of Galveston, Tex., director of the National Baptist Convention of America, will arrive in Indianapolis Friday. Rehearsals will be held each night.

Saturday from 4 p. m. till 5 p. m. the National Children and Youth Choir will meet at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, 15th and Martindale. Please send your children.

Protestant missionaries of all denominations on active service throughout the world now number about 43,000. Of these 27,000 come from the United States and Canada.

Six busloads of parents and children, members of the Sunday School of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, enjoyed a wonderful outing Saturday at Coney Island in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Willie Moore is superintendent of the Sunday School. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cheatham were chairman and co-chairman.

Also enjoying a picnic trip were Sunday School members of Garfield Baptist Church. They travelled to Washington, D.C. and stayed in the finest hotel. Smith Cheatham is superintendent.

Mrs. Thelma Harris and Mrs. Lillie Ward Hatcher have returned from the hospital.

Get well greetings to Mrs. Mary Brooks in St. Vincent's Hospital.

The 23rd annual membership drive of Weekday Religious Education will begin Sept. 5 and continue through Oct. 6. James R. Johnston is chairman.

The plans for this fall's membership drive is to sponsor 23,000 children at $12.50 each. The total sum needed is $287,500. All churches are urged to share in this important home mission project.

Volunteer workers are needed for work at the headquarters. If you can help call the Weekday Religious Education office.

I am asking the parents and ministers to urge all teenagers to be at home by 11 p. m. They break the law if they are out any later. Twenty-seven teenagers were arrested Monday morning at 2:30 a. m. in front of my house. All parents were summoned to court with the children. Parents know where your children are.

Meeting in Indianapolis this week at Marian College is the National Girl Scouts Council. We extend a warm welcome to members.

The Priscilla Young Missionary Chorus of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, directed by Miss Mary Fitts, will present an evening in music at 7:30 p. m.

Buggs Temple of God still needs your support in rebuilding the church which was damaged by fire. The church is located at 2313 N. Alabama. Elder James C. Buggs is minister. Send all donations to them.

The food and clothing drive will continue until the last of the month. If you can donate the goods for Mississippi residents take them to 222 Downey, United Christian Missionary Society headquarters.

Be sure to pack your donations in a box and write on the outside "for the needy in the Delta in Mississippi" and leave the commodities with Miss Ella Grimes.

Continue to collect eyeglasses for India.

An Indiana-based foundation has given $50,000 to help the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) undertake a stepped up national program in human rights in the next year.

Postgraduate degree programs for the continuing education of the ministry are being offered by the Christian Theological Seminary.

Interested persons can work toward a degree of Master of Sacred Theology (STM); Master of Theology, Master of Arts and Master of Science (M.A. and M.S.). For more information call the Seminary or write the Seminary, Box 88267, Indianapolis, 46208.

Vacation Bible School will open at the New Bethel Baptist Church Aug. 14-25 from 9 a. m. till 12 noon each day. Night sessions also will be held. Bible, craft, music and worship are among activities planned. Parents send your children.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Celester McKinney in the loss of her loved one.

The Indiana Baptist State Camp will open Monday. Camp director is Rev. E. D. Butler. Please send your youth.

The following young people from First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, will attend under the sponsorship of the church: Misses Maxine Black, Barbara Graves, and Deborah Hayes, and Norman Williams. The state youth convention will meet over the weekend at the camp.

Seven churches and denominations, including the Baptists, are sharing in the Christian Pavilion at the Canadian Universal and International Exhibition, better known as Expo '67, in Montreal, Canada. Expo '67 runs from April 28-Oct. 27 and is located on Islands in the St. Lawrence River. Theme is "Man and His World."

Prepare now to attend the Indiana Baptist State Fair.

The Baptist World Alliance will meet in 1970 in Tokyo, Japan, July 12-18. Prepare now to attend.
