By WILLA THOMAS

To each and every delegate attending the Christian Convention (Disciples of Christ) at Second Christian Church, welcome and may you have a wonderful meeting and a joyous stay in our city. Rev. H. Peoples is host minister.

The National Baptist Children's Choir of the Senior Woman's National Baptist Convention of American will present a concert Sunday, Oct. 27, at First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, at 3:30 p.m. We invite all of you to attend. The choir will sing at the National Baptist Convention of America under the direction of Mrs. Cassie Downey, Mrs. Rosa Kate Horton, Mrs. Nelvye Johnson and Mrs. Ruby Rhodes. They are doing a wonderful job — all gleaners are to be turned in by Sunday.

I wish to mention Mrs. Cassie Downey who has spent many hours calling, sending letters and going all over town putting up posters advertising the concert to be held at the State Fairgrounds. Get your ticket now at $1.25.

You are still needed to join the National Baptist Convention chorus which meets each night at 7:30 p.m. at Mt. Paran Baptist Church. Men and women of all denominations may join the choir directed by Mrs. Virgie Carrington DeWitty of Austin, Tex., national director.

The Lutheran Child Welfare Association needs homes for short term care of infants and pre-school and schoolage boys and girls. Any interested family is urged to call Miss Elsie Albright, Lutherwood, 359-5467 for further information.

The National Baptist children's choir will rehearse Saturday

B-Card of Thanks

HAYES — We wish to express our thanks to co-workers, friends, relatives, and neighbors for expressions of sympathy, floral tributes and all who contributed in any way to help lighten the burden of sorrow of our husband and father WALTER HAYES We thank Rev Wells and organist Julia Means and we especially thank the King & King Funeral Home for their kind services. Helen Hayes, Wife Ruth Bullock Ellen Barnett, Daughters Grand and Great Grandchildren

RICHMOND — The family of SANFORD RICHMOND wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the kindnesses, sympathy and beautiful floral tributes extended by our relatives, friends, neighbors, Western Electric Co., and Mt. Zion Church members in our time of bereavement. We especially wish to thank Rev. R. T. Andrews of Mt. Zion Baptist Church and Rev. Jesse Johnson. We wish to thank those who acted as pallbearers, the Peoples Funeral Home for their kind services and all who assisted in any way. Mrs. Mary M. Richmond, Wife McKinley Richmond, Brother

AN APPRECIATION Mr. Claude C. White wishes to thank the many friends who remembered him during his illness in Methodist Hospital and convalescence at Greenview Manor. He and his family are most appreciative and take this way of saying "Thank You." Mr. White is at home, 1202 Burdall Pkwy. and will be glad to have friends call on him. fail to believe that all things are possible with God. It doesn't take a lot of people to do something. A few can accomplish much.

Can you help house delegates coming to the National Baptist Convention of America Sept. 5-10? If so call Mrs. Veanie Dawson. I have relatives coming from my home towns, Hattiesburg, and Laurel, Miss I'll be trying to secure a place for them.

Installation services for the new minister of True Vine Baptist Church, Rev. Willie Harris, will continue through Sunday at 3:30 p.m. Rev. Albert Wadsworth, minister of Messiah Baptist Church, will give the installation sermon. His choir will sing. The charge will be given by Frederick Primus. The Bible will be presented by George Morton. A reception will follow the evening worship.

Our minister is improving. Continue to pray for him. Elder F. F. Young was always faithful in Sunday School, teachers' meeting, and prayer meeting. We miss his unselfish way. I thank you for your prayers for him — continue to pray.

Rev. Herbert Easley will speak Sunday at 3:30 p.m. for the senior choir of Metropolitan Baptist Church. Special music will be rendered by the Inspirational choir.

The fall semester of a lay school of theology will open Sept. 26 and continue through Nov. 28 on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. It is co-sponsored by the Irvington Association of Ministers, Church Federation, and Christian Theological Seminary.
