GEORGE P. STEWART
STEWART - In loving memory of our father, brother and grandfather
GEORGE P. STEWART
FOUNDER, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER OF THE INDIANAPOLIS RECORDER 1895 - 1924
Time files But fondly we recall
Your every word and deed
They form a rosary of dreams
But still 'tis you we need
We had so much happiness of laughter and of joy
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.

A-In Memoriam

JESSIE MATTHEWS
MATTHEWS - In loving memory of our mother and grandmother JESSIE MATTHEWS who passed away August 29, 1969.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear Mother
It is sweet to breathe thy name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers
Always tender, fond and true
There's not a day dear Mother
We do not think of you.

WASHINGTON - In loving memory of our dear son, brother and grandson.
CPL. ROBERT J. WASHINGTON who passed August 28, 1968. I cannot say and I will not say
That he is dead, he is just away
With a cherry smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
Think of him still as the same, I say
He is not dead, he is just away.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLA MAE TERRY RADLIFFE
Willa Mae Terry Radcliffe is ever remembered by the remaining members of her family, not only upon the anniversary of her demise, September 1st, but perennially, throughout the year and years.
At the time of her passing she was a talented and beautiful young woman. She was a teacher in the Indianapolis Public School system serving as head of the Art Department of Crispus Attucks High School. In this capacity she influenced the lives of many young people stimulating them to further development of their artistic abilities and instilling within them an appreciation for the finer things.
During the span of her short life she was deeply devoted to her family and her many friends. The family of the late Willa Mae Terry Radcliffe are sincerely grateful to the friends who speak of her frequently and who share the love and reverence of her memory.
She was the second daughter of Mr. Curtis F. Terry and the late Mrs. Mary Ellen Terry.
Upon this occasion honoring the anniversary of her passing the family expresses its gratitude to God for the beauty of her life with its reflection of love, serenity, and quiet and consistent faith in God, in her family, and her fellowman.
The first daughter, Mrs. Vivian Terry Moore will place flowers upon the altars of the several churches where members of the family worship; the third daughter, Mrs. Louise Terry Battles gives a memorial scholarship to a worthy Attucks Student in memory of the beloved late Willa Mae Terry Radcliffe and their beloved mother, the late Mrs. Mary Ellen Terry.
Members of the family who honor her memory are as follows:
Father: Mr. Curtis Franklin Terry
Sisters: Vivian Terry Moore, Louise Terry Battles daughter: Betty Jo Radcliffe Williams and Little Carla Dianne Williams Nephew: Dr. Paul Terry Battles, Captain in U. S. Air Force.
