Obituary

Kizzie A. Crawford passed away August 17, 2008. She was the daughter of the late William Carter Cole and Sophie Brown Cole. Born in Kenton, Tennessee, she was baptized at an early age. Her husband, Robert A. Crawford, five sisters and one brother preceded her in death.

She was a graduate of Vashon High School in St. Louis, MO. She loved her family and always had an open home for family gatherings. Her devotion to family led her to establish the Rosson's Cemetery Fund with her sister Willie J. Moore in 1965 and it continues to this day. She was a charter member of Glendale Memorial Baptist Church where she served faithfully as the secretary of the choir. She loved the Sunday School, worked with the WMU, and floral committee.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Yvonne Taylor and Darlene Miller; two granddaughters, Phyllis Atkinson and Dana Miller; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; special god-daughter, Fredricka Wheat; and her other church home, St. Paul in Kenton, Tennessee.
