NATIONAL FAMILY WEEK

May 1-8, 1949

Radio Citation

We are cooperating in conducting a nationwide poll among Protestants to determine the best radio programs which portray family life. On the basis of your vote, five programs will be cited during National Family Week for "high quality in content and excellence in production."
Rules are:

1. Study your favorite family-life programs on the basis of the ten criteria below and determine the one for which you want to vote.
2. Write it on this ballot, check the reasons why you voted for this program, and send this ballot to us.
3. Your ballot will count only
 - (a) if you vote for a program which portrays family life, and
 - (b) if you check at least five reasons for your choice.

I vote for _____, heard on Station _____
(name of program)

of _____, _____
(city or town) (state)

I VOTE FOR THIS PROGRAM BECAUSE (Check at least five reasons)

- The family is true to life.
- The family members treat each other with respect and affection.
- The family enjoys working and playing together.
- The family treats courtship, marriage, and sex reverently.
- The family is without prejudice toward other races, creeds and classes of people.
- The family lives good citizenship on local and world levels.
- The family respects religion.
- The moral tone of the program is Christian.
- The humor of the program is wholesome.
- The sponsoring commercial announcement is refined and wholesome.

(write in any other reasons)
