SOMEWHERE

*Somewhere the sun is shining through mist and haze blue,
Somewhere there is no sorrow
and hearts are happy and true.
Somewhere there is no heartache
somewhere there is no pain,
Somewhere loved ones are waiting to greet us once again.
And through your understanding
may this set your heart to rest,
Somewhere in all glory
a loving father knows best.*

OBITUARY

MRS. LATONIA E. EDWARDS, daughter of John and Fannie Cisco Howard, was born on October 29, 1913 in Indianapolis, Indiana. One of seven children, she completed her education in the Indianapolis Public School System.

Having professed a hope in Christ at an early age, she was baptized and she later joined the fellowship of the Jones Tabernacle AME Zion Church.

On June 26, 1976 she was united in marriage to Robert L. Edwards.

She had worked for the Chrysler Corporation in the Indianapolis Foundry for twenty-five years, retiring December 31 1976.

A very active person and an avid bowler, she belonged to Eagle Bowling Senior Citizens League and the Golden Playmates Bowling League. One of her favorite affiliations was membership in the Retirees 8 Social Club.

MRS. LATONIA E. EDWARDS departed this life on Tuesday, March 22, 1994 at the age of eighty years, four months and twenty-four days. She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Robert L. Edwards; one daughter, Mildred Hackett; two stepdaughters, Joyce Edwards Moore and Janice Edwards-Gardner; eight grandchildren, Deborah Williams, Diane Holder, Donna Seymour, Cecilia Edwards, John Moore, Jr., Jason Moore, Sandra Edwards and Justin Moore; three great-grandchildren, Sheree Holder, Angela Holder and Devin Williams; one great-great-granddaughter, Asia Fleming; one brother, Charles Paxton Howard; and a host of other relatives and friends.

PSALM TWENTY-THREE

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.*

*He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
