Somewhere in the Philippines, I.

Dear Mom:

I am terribly sorry about my delay in writing to you, but it was do to circumstances way beyond my control I can assure you. Smile How every thing here with me are still about the same, and I trust that you all are likewise. I am enjoying myself here with the Filipinos very much. They seems to be strictly on the Ball. Most of them have been through school & college and are very smart. Some of them knows more about America than I do, smile and the young Ladies, "Oh boy" are they cute. I wish that my Come now. You know, this is the first time I've been to any civilization since I left the States. I know that old "Kitten", "Spot" and "Nick" wished they were over here with me. These women "mom" are just out of this World, to quitty for words. If anything develops soon I'll let you in on it, okay?

Well Mom, I'm really tired now so I must close in order to get some sleep before going to work and I do mean work!!!! It's hard but fair. Pailey, send hello, and tell Ann & Dorothy to write sometimes. Say, by the way, what ever happen to "Dido"? Why did she stop writing?

It's been a long time since I've heard from her. Well mom, I wish I could write more, but time is getting short (and time here is valuable) so please don't feel too bad.

Love,

"Chub"

P.S.

Have you heard from baby "Gert"
yet? Don't forget to write and pray.

Love always,

"Bob"
