The Obituary

EVANGELIST GLADYS WILSON daughter of Eddie Cotton and Clara Lee Clay entered this world on June 11, 1933 in Hinds County, Bolton, Mississippi.

Evangelist Gladys Wilson moved to Jackson, Mississippi with her mother and siblings where she resided until she was 29 years old. She then moved to Indianapolis, Indiana in 1963 with her husband Edward and at the time three children. After moving to Indianapolis, she became the mother of two more children, now a proud wife and mother of five.

Evangelist Wilson began working at St. Maritz restaurant in 1965. Where she worked for 21 years alongside her husband. She then began working at Butler University with the official job title "cashier" but she was known to the students and co-workers as "Child of God". Evangelist Wilson worked at Butler for 19 years until she was led into retirement.

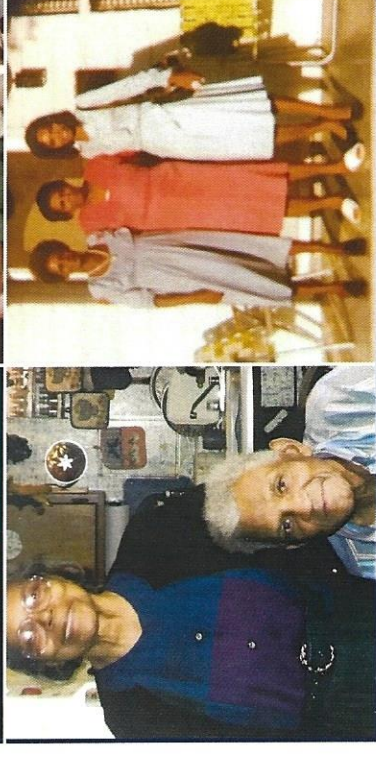

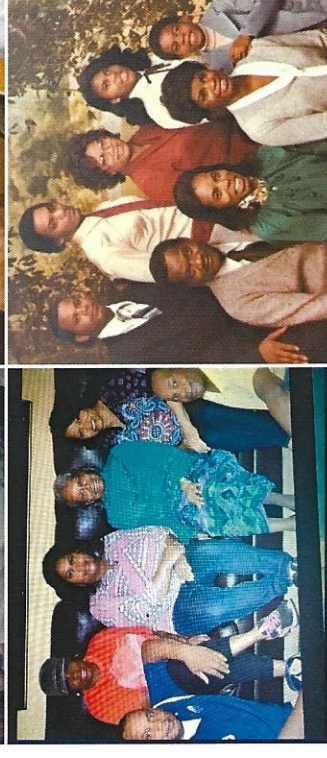

Evangelist Wilson received the Holy Ghost November 17th, 1971 at Bethesda Temple Apostolic Church under the leadership of Bishop Elder Edwin H. Vaughn. As her love for Jesus continued her desire to preach did too. Evangelist Wilson was issued her license as an Evangelist by the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. on May 7th 1992. She then was ordained as a minister on March 24th, 2000. In the words of Evangelist Wilson " I love telling people about Jesus, I want to save and teach the people". This by far was her best work; the work of the Lord.

Evangelist Wilson departed this life to be with her Heavenly Father on Monday, June 10th, 2019 a day before her 86th birthday. She was preceded in death by her parents, Eddie Cotton and Clara Lee Clay; husband Edward Wilson; two sisters Eddie Mae Cotton and Mary L Lange; and two brothers Murphy Cotton and Edgar Cotton Sr.
