Rev. F. F. Young As a Pastor

Rev. F. F. Young is known for his ability to lead his people and his fifty years of leading one flock shows that the Lord has been with him.

He is always ready to help anyone who is trying to do something worth while for the Lord. When he was called to First Baptist it was a small church and did not have a large membership as it has today, but he went and prayed and worked; the church grew as the years passed by, and now it has over a thousand members and one of the best equipped buildings in the city. It provides rooms for each Sunday School class, a large kitchen and dining room, a gymnasium for the recreational program and many other facilities that help to carry on the church work.

Rev. Young worked and helped the church like any other member, he has given his time and money for the cause and God has blessed him and spared him to see some of the wonderful things that he planned and prayed for years ago.

As a pastor he believes firmly in God, he has faith that God will answer prayer, he is always planning for the future and betterment of the church. He renders personal services each day not only to his members but anyone who needs his help. May God bless him and keep him and may he enjoy many more of the blessing that the Lord has in store for him.
