OUR PASTOR

Reverend Clarence C. Moore, B.S., B.Th.

Rev. Clarence C. Moore was born November 28, 1955 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to Clarence and Lee Hilda Hooks Moore. He is the eldest of five children.

He attended the public schools of Winston-Salem. Upon graduation he enrolled at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro where he received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in May 1978. While at the University, Rev. Moore received various awards and recognition. He was voted Outstanding Senior by the Graduating Class of 1978, chosen by the Chancellor of the University to serve on the Honor Code Committee and Advisory Council.

Rev. Moore accepted Jesus as his personal saviour at an early age and was baptized in the Canaan Missionary Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He served as president of the Youth Choir and participated in other youth activities.

In September 1978, Rev. Moore came to Kokomo, Indiana to work as a Purchasing Expeditor for Delco Electronics. He affiliated himself with the Second Missionary Baptist Church and proved a faithful and devoted member. In 1982 he was ordained a deacon of the Second Missionary Baptist Church. On January 15, 1984 Rev. Moore was licensed into the Gospel Ministry by the Second Missionary Baptist Church. In September 1984 he enrolled in Central Baptist Theological Seminary and was graduated in May 1990 with a Bachelor of Theology. On October 22, 1988 Rev. Moore was ordained into the Gospel Ministry by the Second Missionary Baptist Church.

While at the Second Missionary Baptist Church Rev. Moore served in many capacities — Minister of Education, Director of BTU, Dean of Church Congress, organizer and director of Melvin Bellamy Gospel Choir and Male Chorus, organizer and director of Junior Church Department and coordinator of New Member Orientation Class.

Currently, Rev. Moore works as a Lead Supervisor for Delco Electronics. He is married to the former Hope Obie and they are the proud parents of three children — Curtiss Ryan - 7, Courtney Lynn - 5, and Cristen Leigh - 2½.

Mrs. Hope Moore

Hope Obie Moore was born on December 20, 1956 in Roxboro, North Carolina to Bernard and Chestina Tuck Obie. She is one of seven children. She attended the public schools of Roxboro, North Carolina. Upon graduation, she enrolled in the University of North Carolina where she received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing, in May 1979.

Sis. Moore accepted Jesus as her personal saviour at an early age and was baptized in the Prospect Hill Baptist Church, Roxboro, North Carolina. She was actively involved in the Sunday School, Youth Choir, and Vacation Bible School.

In June of 1979 Sis. Moore came to Kokomo, Indiana as the bride of Rev. Clarence Moore. She affiliated herself with the Second Missionary Baptist Church where she became involved with the Sunday School, Junior Church, Vacation Bible School, Church Congress, and Junior Women - YWA Missionary Auxiliary. She also organized and directed the adult and youth drama groups.

Sis. Moore has worked at Saint Joseph Memorial Hospital in Medical/Surgical Nursing and as a Visiting Nurse for Home Health Care of Howard County. On occasion she has served as a clinical instructor at Indiana University — Kokomo School of Nursing

Currently Sis. Moore is a homemaker. She enjoys cooking, sewing, and gardening. She also enjoys studying the Bible. In May 1990 she received a Bachelor of Religious Education from Central Baptist Theological Seminary. She and Rev. Moore are the proud parents of three beautiful children.

News and Notes

NNE Feeds the Community

Northside New Era's Feed My Sheep Ministry, along with Food Link, held a food giveaway on Oct. 17. Food, clothes and small household items were distributed at the event, which proved to be a success. The food giveaway served 258 individuals, representing 1,271 family members.

Lots to Celebrate

2010 will prove to be a busy year. It will commemorate Northside New Era's 65th church anniversary, Pastor Moore's 20th pastoral anniversary and 55th (Ahem! 39th) birthday. With these three major milestones, NNE is sure to have a full calendar. Be sure to check out Dawn of a New Era, the NNE bulletin, announcements and www.nne.org to stay updated on event dates and times.

Revived!

Thank you to the Union District Association Inc. for allowing NNE to host the "Unity Revival" Nov. 16th-19th, 2009. Special thanks to Moderator Pastor Ronald Covington for spearheading the revival and also to Revivalist Pastor Jeffery Johnson for delivering the word. CDs and DVDs of all three nights are still available through the Tape Ministry or on www.nne.org.

New Pews for You

Church Interiors, Inc. in High Point, N.C., has replaced the cushions and reupholstered our pews. The gorgeous design is called "Jewel - red," which is part of their Sanctuary Edition, and was chosen by NNE trustees and Pastor Moore.
