HOW TO BEHAVE IN A LIBRARY

I had some liesure time so I thought I would spend it at the library. I found an interesting book and settled down to read. Two little boys nearby began laughing and playing. It was very disturbing.

Whenever one is in the library he should be as quiet as possible for the sake of others. If you have to move around do it quietly. When your books are about to be stamped wait your turn. After the librarian has stamped them thank her politely.

—Alma Derrickson, 5A

THE NEW TEACHERS ARE WELCOME

We welcome the two new teachers at our building. Their names are: Miss Harris, who is teaching the sixth grade in Room 17, and Mr. Ervin, who is in the Junior High, Room 14. We are very glad to have them at our school. Miss Harris taught at School 37 last year and Mr. Ervin at School 17. We welcome these new teachers to our beautiful building and hope they enjoy working here.

Anna Benjamin, 8A

A FRIENDLY CONTEST

In our science classes we are having a little friendly rivalry to see which class first reaches its goal of 100% in Workbooks. Mrs. Willis, our science teacher, has promised an extra 100% to each pupil in the class which reaches its goal first. The 8A girls are the happiest pupils in the school, for they have been the first to reach their quota. The 8A boys are next with 75%. For the Junior High School, Room 13 is ahead with 83%.

Louise Roberts, 8A (7)

A CHINESE FASHION SHOW WAS VERY INTERESTING

We had a very nice fashion show Friday. The girls came in to the tune of "China Boy." Eleanor Henry came out as a mandarin. She had on a long coat and pajamas which were designed with flowers. Second came Gloria Ann Morton-Finney. She was a Shanghai society lady. Her gown was beautiful with a dragon. She wore jade earrings. Third came Willa Bridgewater. She was dressed in Chinese red. Fourth entered Bessie Smith as a Chinese school girl. Her coat was blue with trimming. Henrietta Rockhold was becomingly dressed as a rich Chinese lady in red pajamas. Her long-sleeved coat was designed with pagoda's. After the show we had a tea party. The girls served in the costume that they wore in the show.

Muriel Woods, 6B

THE RIGHT AND WRONG WAY TO CELEBRATE HALLOWE'EN

There is a right way to have fun and there is also a wrong way. Sometimes boys and girls forget this. No person on earth wants his windows soaped, or his property destroyed by someone having fun. A party at your home, a taffy pull, hay rides or taking part in a parade are all enjoyable. If everyone would think of this rule: "To do unto others as you would have others to do to you," everyone would have fun and no one would be unhappy after the Hallowe'en celebration.

Anna M. Belle, 7A

The 4A boys and girls of Room 9 have been studying about the desert. Here is a poem Dorothy Riggs has written:

The Camel

The camel is so very high
He tries to make his neck touch the sky.

The camel carries a great big pack
And people ride on his big back.

HERALD NEWS

The Cheer-up Committee of Room 15 took flowers to Miss Barnes, a former teacher of School 42, who is shut-in.

CHILDREN MAKE VACATION PROFITABLE

Word has been received from the Riverside Branch Library that the following children read ten or more books during the summer: Anna Benjamin, Hattie Blackburn, Irene Clemons, Russel Clemons, Paul Parks, Dorothy Parks, Martha Torrance, Gloria Dunlap, Jack Gardner, Ruth Gardner, Louise Hardy, Jacqueline Parks, and Alma Woods.

THE FORTY-TWO HERALD

Room 3 is planning to have a Halloween play for their assembly program, October 25.

Room 15 belongs to the Good Citizens League. This is a national organization and is sponsored by the Child Life Magazine. Mrs. Brooks has taken the magazine for the boys and girls of her room. The children enjoy this magazine and watch to see each month's issue appear on their library table.

ATTENDS PLACES OF INTEREST

Social Studies activities make it necessary for students to go places and see things.

Jeff Suber visited the Children's Museum. Hattie Blackburn and Norma Taylor heard a lecture on China at the Art Institute. Lorine Riggs and Josephine Yourie visited the Art Department and Wm. H. Block.
